

Greetings from LAVALLETTE, NEW JERSEY

Dearest Mother - We're vacationing here (with the trailer) for a week. It's a narrow peninsula of sand with a beach on one side & the Atlantic on the other. Weather has been ^{changeable} but mostly hot - you'd ^{perish} in such sticky heat!! The ocean is nice tho & we have ^{rented} umbrellas. The boys have an inflated raft they ride the waves on & have a marvelous time.
 Joe got a slight burn but is getting over it. The baby almost has teeth & is getting along fine. I was finally reduced to wearing shorts after I got here - the heat's too much. Anyone wears them anyway & you stand out like a sore thumb in anything else. Really populated here - cost us $30 for trailer space for a week. Joe almost had a spasms. With lots of love & kisses to you from Joe, Pat & boys
